

“Nora’s Room”

Words and Music by Jessica Harper from the CD Nora’s Room

Chorus: Crash, bang, crash bang boom,
Something’s going on in Nora’s room
Crash, bang, crash bang boom,
Something’s going on in Nora’s room (repeat Chorus)

Verse #1: Crash, bang, crash bang boom,
Something’s going on in Nora’s room
Sounds like girls, sounds like boys,
Sounds like someone’s making lots of noise

Chorus: Crash, bang, crash bang boom,
Something’s going on in Nora’s room
Crash, bang, crash bang boom,
Something’s going on in Nora’s room

Verse #2: Now how much noise does a little girl need?
Sounds like the whole city zoo got freed.
Sounds like the bear is dancing with the moose.
(They like to dance when they’re on the loose.)

Verse #3: Sounds like hippos at a hippo hop.
Or when you pick up a piano and you let it drop.
Or 16 pumpkins falling on a truck,
Or a couple of gorillas playing duck, duck, duck, duck

Chorus: Goose, bang, crash bang boom
Something’s going on in Nora’s room
Crash, bang, crash bang boom,
Something’s going on in Nora’s room

Verse #4: Like London bridge is really falling down
Or a couple of giants are sitting on a town
Or 47 monkeys are talking on the phone
To 47 dogs who are fighting for a bone

Chorus: Bark Bark, bang, crash bang boom
Something's going on in Nora's room
Crash, bang, crash bang boom,
Something's going on in Nora's room

Verse #5: Sounds like a rodeo, right upstairs
Or a bunch of rhinos playing musical chairs
Sounds like a dump truck dumping its junk
Or an elephant hoedown (swing your trunk)

Chorus: Crash, bang, crash bang boom
Something's going on in Nora's room
Crash, bang, crash bang boom,
Something's going on in Nora's room

Verse #6: Sounds like girls, sounds like boys,
Sounds like someone's making lots of noise, and
The sign on her door says, "Enter if you dare"
So, I just say, "What's going on in there?"

"Nothing...."

Chorus: Crash, bang, crash bang boom
Something's going on in Nora's room
Crash, bang, crash bang boom,
Something's going on in Nora's room
