

“Oh Hey, Oh Hi, Hello”

Words and Music by Jim Gill

Source: Jim Gill Makes It Noisy In Boise, Idaho

Verse #1: In the great state of Ohio
From Cincinnati to Toledo
They never simply say hello
They sing “Oh hey, oh hi, hello”

CHORUS: Oh hey, oh hi, hello
Oh hey, oh hi, hello
Oh hey, oh hi, oh hey, oh hi, hello (REPEAT)

Verse #2: When they’re in the library
They sing it very quietly CHORUS

Verse #3: Outside in a great big crowd
They sing together very loud CHORUS

Verse #4: When they're sad and teary-eyed

They sing it even as they cry

CHORUS

Verse #5: Sure they'll sing it when they're sad, but they'll

Even sing it when they're mad

CHORUS

Verse #6: Under water in a swimming pool

It sounds very unusual

CHORUS

Verse #7: Whenever there's a big full moon

They tend to sing it out of tune

CHORUS

LAST CHORUS