

Online Publishing Agreement 2011

As part of our initiative to integrate technology into teaching and learning, Midwest Young Artists is advocating the sharing of student created content via a dedicate website for The Little Maestro Singers.

The Little Maestro Singers website (<http://lmmaa.weebly.com>) has been created to organize information for students and parents, as well as to publish online projects and student work.

Online projects and student work may include:

- Photographs
- Voice recordings
- Video recordings

When publishing to the website, Mr. Koch will NOT include any specific identifiable information other than the student's first name.

If you have any questions, please email Fred Koch at fredkoch@mya.org.

Please check one of the boxes, sign and return this page to Mr. Koch at Midwest Young Artists.
Thank you.

I DO grant permission for my child's work as described above,
to be published online.
